

Objectives:

- * To provide an appropriate and comfortable ambience for the library users.
- * To make library & information system as user friendly as possible with the applications of information and communication technology.
- * To increase the range of information, multimedia and computer resources available to users.
- * To increase user resources and services through evaluation, planning and budgeting.
- * To serve the community as a center of reliable information.
- * To create a comprehensive networked information environment, a seamless rich set of tools and resources for the college community.