Brief details of the event:

On the occasion of field trip we and our class went to chinaganjam with the help of our Faculty members, about prawn life cycle, in that field visit. A group of 120 students from CSE-4 and CS-IT with five teachers went on a field project to prawns factory at chinaganjam.

Response of the audience: The field trip is about the prawn's production. There we gain so much knowledge about the farming of prawns. It was so interested visit we had. There was a restriction to see the prawns farming that was a potassium permanganate (KMno₄) liquids which is we want to apply to our legs before entering to see the prawns farming. The farming of prawns was so fascinating and our group started to work upon the purpose of this visit.

Learning Outcomes:

Students visited the place and they identified some problem from the field trip is given below.
An engineer's perspective

1. Effective utilization of water resources.
2. Prompt information delivery to farmers.
3. Regarding Government schemes (loans,subsidies,food)
4. Regarding sharing of knowledge by corresponding scientist.
5. Design of smart machines for feeding.

As there are various branches in our college, we all could take up aforementioned problems and get solutions by employing skills of the respective branch.
